

ABBAS HUSAIN

Abbas Husain has an M.A. in English Literature and M.Ed. (Teaching English to speakers of other languages) from Manchester University, U.K. He has received professional training at the Universities of Toronto, Pittsburgh, Louisville and Chicago. He served as Lecturer and Assistant Professor from 1981 to 1992 in Department of English at University of Karachi. He is one of the founder members of SPELT and has participated in all national and international conferences from 1987 to date.

Abbas Husain's experience as a corporate trainer spans over a decade since 1990. He has been a guest speaker at National Defense University, Islamabad, Pakistan Navy Staff College; Pakistan Air War College, and as a trainer of the Advanced Course at NIPA, Karachi. He has been a consultant for UNICEF at the Regional Conference in Khatmandu, Nepal, 1998. He has appeared on GEO TV, Indus TV, PTV and DAWNNEWS for educational and religious programs.

Abbas Husain has so far reached over 30,000 teachers all over Pakistan. As Director, Teacher's Development Centre, he has conducted the Master Teacher's Course since 1997 and has so far contributed 289 teacher trainers to the national pool of trainers. Of them 62 have achieved leadership positions in their respective institutions. He is recognized as a source of original thinking in education and is invited by Roots School System in their Annual Teacher's Development Conference, as well as the Sindh Education Foundation for keynotes and Seminar Papers. His articles in newspapers and magazines, and television programs (recently on DAWN NEWS) have made him well known as a catalyst for change.

He has been active in the Benazir Bhutto Shaheed Youth Development Program (training 375 educators at the Colleges of Education all over Sindh). Teachers' Development Centre is a partner with the British Council in their Connecting Classrooms Project. In May 2008 he was invited as a Speaker at the UK-Pakistan School Leadership Conference at Nottingham, UK.

In February 2009 he attended the National Prayer Breakfast in Washington with President Obama as Chief Guest.

He conducted a series of teachers' training workshops March 2010 in Pakistan School Muscat, Oman.

His experience and voice is sought after in serious discussions on education in Pakistan.